Mindfulness: The Quiet Art of Inner Strength

Ms. Revathi K
Editorial Board

In the vibrant world of student life—filled with ringing bells, rushing thoughts, and growing expectations—inner strength is often found not in noise, but in calmness. Mindfulness introduces students to this gentle power. It teaches them to pause, to breathe with awareness, and to remain rooted in the present moment, even when the world seems hurried.

When anxiety whispers before an examination or emotions rise during a challenging day, mindfulness becomes a quiet guide. A single mindful breath can ease tension and steady the heart. In that peaceful space, thoughts gain clarity, understanding deepens, and confidence begins to bloom. Learning feels lighter, more focused, and far more meaningful.

Inner strength also reveals itself through kindness. A calm mind encourages patience over impulse, listening over reacting, and empathy over judgement. Such awareness transforms classrooms into nurturing spaces where respect grows naturally and mistakes are embraced as steps towards improvement.

Mindfulness gently weaves itself into daily routines—into attentive listening, thoughtful writing, mindful walking, and even moments of play. Each pause strengthens concentration and builds emotional resilience.

As students practise the quiet art of mindfulness, they discover that true strength does not shout. It whispers—guiding them to face challenges with balance, courage, and a peaceful confidence that lasts far beyond the classroom.

When Silence Teaches: The Sacred Intelligence of Mindfulness

“The quieter you become, the more you are able to hear.”

In the spaces between breath and thought, life quietly waits to be noticed. Yet we rush past these sacred intervals, filling them with noise, urgency, and excess. Mindfulness invites us back-to the stillness where clarity is born, where meaning gathers slowly, and where the soul learns once again to attend.

Within the gentle rhythm of a school day, mindfulness works silently, shaping lives in ways unseen. It meets students where words often fail-amid expectations they carry too early, uncertainties they struggle to name, and hopes they guard carefully. When attention is honoured, understanding deepens. When awareness is cultivated, resilience grows. Learning ceases to be a race and becomes a journey, reminding young hearts that becoming is sacred, and growth need not be hurried to be worthy.

For those who teach, mindfulness transforms education from instruction into presence. Lessons gain depth when offered with stillness. Guidance carries weight when rooted in attentiveness. Silence, when honoured, teaches as powerfully as speech. In such classrooms, education moves beyond curriculum and becomes formation, where character is shaped gently and every learner is held with dignity and care.

Beyond the school gates, mindfulness finds its echo in homes. For parents, it is the grace of slowing down-to listen without judgement, to accompany without pressure, and to trust the unfolding of their child's journey. In these quiet acts of presence, bonds are strengthened, confidence is restored, and children discover that they are loved not merely for achievements, but for the lives they are growing into.

At its deepest level, mindfulness is spiritual. It draws us into the present moment—the sacred meeting place between human fragility and divine grace. Prayer itself is mindfulness: a conscious dwelling in God's presence, where silence instructs, awareness heals, and the ordinary is gently transformed.

May we, as a learning community, learn the courage to pause without fear, to listen without haste, and to grow without pressure. For mindfulness does not ask us to add more to life—it teaches us how to inhabit life fully, faithfully, and with love.

“Attention is the rarest and purest form of generosity.”

Vice Principal's Message

Fr. Reji Koodapattu CMI

Mindfulness: The Courage to Be Still Before God

The loudest lessons of life are often learnt in silence.

In a world that constantly urges us to hurry, mindfulness arrives as a quiet invitation—to slow down, to breathe deeply, and to be fully present where our feet are planted. It is not a retreat from responsibility, but a return to reverence.

Mindfulness is the soul's discipline of attention. It teaches us to dwell—not merely to exist. When the mind is attentive, the heart becomes awake; when the heart is awake, life begins to speak. What we notice, we honour. What we attend to, we transform.

Education, when rooted in mindfulness, becomes sacred work. Learning is no longer a race toward outcomes but a journey into awareness. A mindful learner listens beyond words. A mindful teacher teaches beyond syllabi. A mindful institution recognises that the formation of character is as vital as the acquisition of knowledge.

Spiritual wisdom reminds us that God is not found in noise, but in presence. Prayer itself is an act of mindfulness—standing still before the Eternal, allowing grace to shape our thoughts and actions. When we learn to be present, every moment becomes prayerful, every task meaningful, every encounter human.

For young minds navigating uncertainty, pressure, and comparison, mindfulness offers an inner compass. It nurtures resilience through reflection, strength through stillness, and peace through perspective. It teaches that calm is not weakness, and silence is not emptiness—but preparation.

May our classrooms echo with attentiveness.

May our schedules make space for silence.

And may we remember that true education begins not when the mind is filled, but when it is centred.

As the ancient wisdom gently reminds us:

“Be still, and know that I am God.”

All About Our Class 5 Special Assembly

On November 6th, our class 5 students orchestrated a spectacular special assembly themed 'Prudence' in the Silver Jubilee Hall. With the gracious presence of our beloved Principal, Teachers, Parents and our esteemed German guests, the event was a symphony of talent and joy. We're super thankful to our amazing teachers who guided and supported us in crafting this masterpiece. The assembly kicked off with a vibrant fresh start, followed by a mesmerizing prayer dance where students donned elegant Onam attire costumes. Report on Holy Mass – Class 5

On 7th November 2025, Friday at 8:30 AM, a solemn Holy Mass was celebrated at the Chapel of Christ School ICSE for the Catholic students of Class 5.

This special celebration was offered for the intentions and wellbeing of all the students of Class 5, invoking God's blessings upon them as they continue their academic and spiritual journey. The Holy Mass was presided over by Rev. Fr. Cibi, who began by appreciating the serene and sacred atmosphere of the chapel. In his homily, Fr. Cibi, beautifully conveyed that the true beauty of the chapel does not lie merely in its structure or design, but in the presence of each person gathered in prayer.

He reminded the students that “without you, the chapel is not complete”, emphasizing that every individual contributes to making the house of God vibrant and holy through faith, love, and active participation.

The Gospel reading of the day was taken from Luke 16:1-8, which narrates the Parable of the Dishonest Steward. Fr. Cibi, explained that this passage teaches us about wise stewardship and the importance of using our gifts and resources responsibly for the glory of God.

He encouraged the students to be faithful in small things, to act prudently, and to recognize that everything entrusted to us is an opportunity to serve God and others.

His message inspired the students to reflect on their role in the school and the Church community. The celebration concluded with prayers for the students, their families, and teachers, followed by a hymn of thanksgiving. It was a spiritually enriching experience that strengthened the bond of faith among the young learners.

CSSA Outreach: A Journey of Compassion, Service, and Giving

True service is not measured by the size of what we give, but by the love with which we give it. Guided by this spirit, the CSSA Committee of our school undertook a series of outreach initiatives that became powerful lessons in empathy, gratitude, and humanity.

On 8th November 2025, our school had the privilege of visiting Ashwas Dharmaram Centre, an organisation that provides free midday meals to the needy. The visit was graced by our respected Principal, the Principal of the German School, staff members, coordinators, CSSA Committee members, and students from both schools. Students actively participated in serving food to the underprivileged and contributed a token amount as a gesture of support. The warmth, humility, and noble mission of Ashwas deeply touched everyone present, especially our German guests, who expressed heartfelt appreciation for the selfless service rendered there. The experience left us inspired by sharing.

Continuing this journey of Committee along with 7 visited Akashaparavakal shelters and cares for people streets. Guided by Sister interacted with the residents, kindness, and listened with entertainment programme of songs and dance filled the atmosphere with joy and smiles. As part of the Wings of Fashion service activity, students had collected essential items such as soaps and toiletries, which were handed over to support the daily needs of the ashram. This visit became a touching reminder that even simple acts of kindness can bring immense comfort and hope.

As part of the Wings of Compassion, the CSSA Committee also organised a donation drive for the Little Sisters of the Poor – Home for the Aged. Toiletry items were collected with the wholehearted support of students and staff. On 25th November 2025, the sisters visited our school, and the collected items were handed over in the presence of the Principal, CSSA Committee members, and Social Service Club students of Classes 6 and 7. This contribution will help meet the daily needs of the elderly residents and brought a sense of fulfilment to everyone involved.

Through these outreach activities, our students learnt that service is not an obligation but a privilege. Each visit strengthened their understanding of compassion, dignity, and social responsibility. These initiatives truly reflected the

Children's Day 2K25

Children's Day is a day celebrated in remembrance of Jawaharlal Nehru's birthday, who loved children a lot. Every school celebrates Children's Day, so does our school – Christ School ICSE.

We entered the school with a warm welcome by the mascots. The students were dressed in their best attire, making them feel special.

As the program began, we all welcomed our Principal and the Chief Guest (who was a student in Nehruji's costume).

All the teachers had prepared different activities to entertain us. Some of them had participated in dance, singing, drama, and involving us in games. In class, we played fun-filled games with our classmates and ate special snacks and lunch together.

After the lunch, we were called to the main hall to have fun and blast with music. The programme ended with a mob flash which was prepared by the teachers. We also got small gifts and a treat, making the day more memorable.

Holy Rosary

“The greatest method of praying is to pray the Rosary.”

-St. Francis de Sales

The Holy Rosary, a revered devotion in the Catholic tradition, has been a cornerstone of Christian spirituality for centuries. This sacred prayer, comprising a series of contemplative meditations on the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, has brought solace, comfort, and guidance to countless believers. As the calendar turns to October, Catholics around the world prepare to honour the Holy Rosary. It marks a special invitation to reflect on the Rosary's profound spiritual significance. A special ten-day Rosary recitation was held on 15 October, 2025. The Rosary was held in the school chapel from 3:10 to 3:40 pm.

Teachers were assigned to lead the Rosary on their respective days. Their involvement added warmth and prayerful ambience. The 10-day Rosary celebration at Christ School ICSE served as a powerful reminder that prayer can transform lives, and that together, we can build a culture of love, peace, and devotion.

"Day of Thrills at Wonderla"

Thousands of Thrills Awaits Beyond books

No bells, no books—just the exhilarating promise of a day full of fun

The students of grade 9 and 10 journeyed to Wonderla, the largest amusement park in Bangalore, on November 11th 2025. The day promised towering coasters, splashing log flumes, and countless games. Wonderla a fun filled amusement park features a dynamic mix of exhilarating dry rides, including signature roller coasters, and extensive water parks. Excitement was in the air as the students entered the park.

As we entered we were welcomed with cool drinks and the spectacular feeling of a fun day with peers. After keeping our bags in lockers we set out to make the fullest of the wonderful time at wonderla. The thrilling rides such as Recoil, Eqinox, Wonder splash were all oozing with the laughter and the terrified scream of every student on it. After the land rides it was time for lunch. We were offered a healthy and delicious meal to keep us energetic for the water rides. On our way back, we were dancing to loud music and letting our hearts out.

As the day came to an end it made each one of us realise we had a great time, a day that was filled with love and fun and teachers who were selflessly taking care of us the whole time. We sincerely thank our beloved Principal, Fr. Nilson Davis CMI for arranging this trip and offering us a day that will forever be etched in our memories. More than the destination it was the people who mattered. We are grateful for all the facilities and the dedication of the staff for making our day the best one.

A Rainy Day

What a rainy day!
Can I go and play?
Snails and rats are racing,
Running every way.
 Rain falls on rooftops,
 Rain falls on trees,
 Rain falls on the grass,
 But not on me!
I'm cosy and warm,
With milk by my chair,
But my big sister says,
"That's not fair!"
 Pick up a book,
 Learn something new,
 Or just sit and stare,
 It's up to you!
